

AGENDA
Interbasin Compact Committee (IBCC)

March 16, 2009
9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.
Radisson Hotel
1900 Ken Pratt Blvd.
Longmont, CO

At the December, 2008 meeting the IBCC agreed to further develop three water supply strategies: conservation, agricultural transfers, and new supply development (including in-basin use and transbasin diversions). Combinations of these strategies are intended to meet different future scenarios in 2050. The focus of this meeting is to describe the future scenarios and to further develop these strategies.

9:00 - 9:30	Welcome, Introduction, and Agenda Review - Harris Sherman, Eric Hecox
9:30 – 10:00	Scenarios for Colorado’s Water Supply Future – Eric Hecox, Sue Morea The IBCC will provide feedback on future scenarios
10:00 – 11:00	Conservation Strategy – Veva Deheza Discuss how much the Demand Management Strategy will reduce overall 2050 demands
11:00 – 12:00	Agriculture Transfer Strategy – Todd Doherty, Nicole Rowan IBCC will use a live tool to discuss how different assumptions affect how ag dry-up looks across the state
12:00 – 1:00	Break/Lunch Lunch Discussion: Update on the Colorado River Water Availability Study
1:00 – 2:30	New Supply Development / Risk Management Strategy – Eric Hecox, Sue Morea Discuss different concepts of how to develop low, medium, and high amounts of the state’s Colorado River compact entitlement
2:30 – 3:00	Break
3:00 – 3:45	Next Steps and Path Forward – Harris Sherman, Jennifer Gimbel, Eric Hecox Discuss what work should occur between the March and July IBCC meetings to further develop the water supply strategies
3:45 – 4:00	State budget update – Eric Hecox Changes for the Interbasin Compact Process and WSRA
4:00	Close of IBCC Meeting Next Meeting: July 20 th in Crested Butte