STEAMBOAT SPRINGS, Colo. - The Colorado Water Conservation Board approved 14 grants from the Water Supply Reserve Account (WSRA) program totaling over $3.3 million. The WSRA program was created to identify and meet critical water supply needs by funding construction of infrastructure, feasibility studies, studies of human and environmental needs, and technical assistance for permitting or environmental compliance. The CWCB administers the program in collaboration with the Interbasin Compact Committee and the nine Basin Roundtables.
