

Summary

This is an application for a change of water rights in Adams, Weld, Jefferson, Park and Clear Creek Counties. Applicant is proposing to change the use to fully consume the quantified historical consumptive use of its shares in the Burlington Ditch and the Wellington Reservoir Company from irrigation to all municipal, augmentation, recharge, replacement, exchange and substitution uses, either directly or following storage. Applicant seeks the right to store the changed water rights for later use. Additionally, applicant requests the right to change the place of use to within the service area of the City of Brighton as it now exists or may exist in the future.

CWCB Appropriations

The CWCB holds the following instream flow water rights that could be injured by this application:
