

Global Grain, Energy, & Livestock Markets: Balancing Risk Management to Turn a Profit – Kevin Good, Cattle Fax

The presentation will broadly cover Global and United States supply, demand and price situation for grains, energy and livestock. The effects of the current drought and the prospects for change moving forward due to the drought will be covered. Emphases will be placed on the increasing need and use of risk management in an ever changing economic environment, especially with drought as a major factor.