

Colorado Basin Roundtable Report	7/2/2014	Explanation
task	% complete
Task 1 - Coordinate media stories (100 over 2 years)	100%	See list of media hits at: http://www.coloradomesa.edu/watercenter/RoundtableEducationProject.html Placement of media stories exceeds number archived on website, since editors often do not inform us when they print our articles, and not all are easily accessible on the internet.
Task 2a: establish core messages & resources	100%	Basic ppt established; updated to reflect CO Water Planning Process.
Task 2b: detailed outreach plan for 6 areas	100%	Outreach plans completed.
Task 2 c&d: implement + evaluate (60-100)	100%	Public meetings and presentations for the Basin Implementation Plan rounded out our total civic outreach commitment.
Task 2e: electronic communication	100%	See archived newsletters at http://www.coloradomesa.edu/watercenter/News.html - distribution list now exceeds 1,000 ; also our facebook (https://www.facebook.com/WaterCenter.CMU) and twitter (https://twitter.com/WaterCenterCMU) pages. Colorado Basin newspapers that have printed articles, in addition to the GJ Free Press, include the Rifle Citizen Telegram, Vail Daily, Summit Daily, and Glenwood Springs Post-Independent.
Task 3: water seminars & classes	100%	We've done two rounds of the 3-evening Water Course + one "State of the River" seminar since the grant started; Next one is coming up 5/13
Task 4: coordinate exchanges with other BRTs	100%	Exchanges with other roundtables have occurred through an exhibit at the Colorado Water Congress January 2014 meeting; West Slope caucus meetings; appearance of S Platte and Arkansas representatives at the 2014 Water Course (focused on the Water Plan). These activities supplement the roundtable summits, IBCC meetings and all-chairs meetings organized by the CWCB, at which roundtables also exchange information.
Task 5: Evaluation	100%	We have significantly increased the feedback received through more aggressively circulating surveys and including survey links with newspaper articles and newsletters. This feedback has been provided to the Roundtable members.
Task 6: Reporting	100%	This is our final report; if you would like more information, please let me know.
