

Colorado Basin Roundtable

Glenwood Springs Community Center

Glenwood Springs, CO

Oct. 27, 2014

Noon-4 pm

Noon

Pizza Working Lunch

Karn Stiegelmeier, Vice Chair, Presiding

12:15 What's Ag Efficiency, What's Ag Conservation and What's the Difference?" Also, How Consumptive is Ag?

Dr. Perry Cabot, Colorado State University, will reprise his CRD Annual Water Seminar presentation and address the consumption question

1:00 Colorado Stormwater Council presents on its Water Quality Education Campaign and potential WSRA grant request

1:20 Break

1:30 IBCC Seven Points concepts on how to discuss a new transmountain diversion and what other BIPs say

Jacob Bornstein of the CWCB and CBRT IBCC reps Stan Cazier and Carlyle Currier will lead us through a review of the IBCC concepts. Comments will be recorded, edited by the CBRT Exec Committee and then reviewed at the November CBRT meeting for approval of submittal to the IBCC

3:00 Update of Phase II BIP

Karl Hanlon of Karp Neu and Hanlon will review approaches to editing and reformatting the BIP

3:20 Angie Fowler of SGM will review approaches to tiering projects

3:40 Discuss Next Steps on Six Themes in CBRT BIP

4:00 Dismiss

Future Meetings:

Thursday, Dec. 18, 9-3 at Ute Water in Grand Junction:

Four West Slope Roundtable meeting. Details to follow.

Late February-early March: Look for another state Roundtable Summit.