

Statewide Basin Roundtable Summit
March 12, 2015 – 8 am to 5 pm
Westin Hotel - 10600 Westminister Boulevard, Westminister, CO 80020

8:00 am	Breakfast
8:30 am	Welcome and Purpose of This Year's Summit (John Stulp and James Eklund)
9:00 am	Review of Colorado's Water Plan James Eklund will provide a short review of the first draft of Colorado's Water Plan and an advance look at the work ahead to revise the Plan.
9:30 am	Creative Ideas to Address Challenging Issues in the Water Plan A panel from the water community will share their views on the challenges and proposed creative solutions related to funding, permitting, legislation, and agricultural viability.
10:15 am	Break
10:45 am	Table Top Discussions: Creative Ideas for Permitting and Funding Participants at each table will identify their new, creative ideas for addressing challenges related to permitting and funding.
12:00 pm	Lunch
12:30 pm	Speaker TBD
1:15 pm	Table Top Discussions: Creative Ideas for Ag Viability and Legislation Participants at each table will identify their new, creative ideas for addressing challenges related to agricultural viability and legislation.
2:30 pm	Break
3:00 pm	Conceptual Framework: What It Is and What It Isn't Short review of the draft Conceptual Framework, including its intended purpose and why IBCC members from around the state and from different interests agreed to it
3:45 pm	Conceptual Framework: Where Do We Go from Here? A panel from the basin roundtables will share their views on what aspects of the Conceptual Framework would benefit from additional clarification or expansion.
4:45 pm	Closing Remarks (John Stulp and James Eklund)
5:00 pm	Adjourn
5:30 pm	Reception