

Correction Statement and Agreement

In consideration of the closing for the Chatfield Reallocation Project, all Water Providers, as defined in the Water Provider Agreements by and between the Water Providers and the Colorado Department of Natural Resources ( the "State") agree that the State will make a final review of all closing documents to ensure that there are no clerical errors or clerical inaccuracies, such as page numbering, typographical errors, clerical errors, etc. Any clerical errors or clerical inaccuracies encountered will be corrected by the State of Colorado, after notification and in coordination and agreement with that Water Provider and updated documents will be provided. A list of any and all non-substantive corrections made to any of the closing documents will be provided to all Water Providers.
