Description: Native Grass Manual Website
Colorado WaterWise will develop a Native Grass Manual Website to provide an accessible,updatable manual for landscape owners, managers, and industry professionals that describes best practices for successful installation and maintenance of native and waterwise grasses in urban and suburban areas in Colorado. The website will also have a unique decision making tool to support users in identifying the best options for their property. The website will also identify common missteps and potential risks with installing native grasses and showcase case studies that demonstrate its costs and benefits.
As a part of this agreement, please refer to Exhibit A and B (dated 5/1/23) for a complete Statement of Work and Budget.
