Dear Mr. Cunningham,

RE: File No. M-1984-094
Sanborn Sand and Gravel / dba Golden Cross Aggregate
Gloria Z Mine

We have recently heard comments that the above property might be for sale. I cannot confirm this statement but it certainly raises permit policy questions.

If the property sells, does the permit automatically transfer to the new owners or are they required to apply for a new permit? Will restoration of the existing mine be required before they can sell the property? Does the existing permit have an expiration date?

Thank you for the clarification.

Sincerely,

Ann Lukacs
