Public Notice

Cripple Creek & Victor Gold Mining Company, 100 North Third Street (P.O. Box 191) Victor, CO 80860, has filed a request for "Notice of Completion" from its Regular (112d) Designated Mining Reclamation Permit (Permit No. M-1980-244) with the Colorado Mined Land Reclamation Board under the provisions of the Colorado Mined Land Reclamation Act. The Cresson Project is located in the Cripple Creek Mining District predominantly in Township 15 South, Range 69 West, 6th Prime Meridian between the cities of Victor and Cripple Creek, Colorado. This request applies to approximately 66.9 acres of land that will be removed from the Amendment 11 affected lands area. No disturbance activities have occurred on these lands as a result of current CC&V operations and no reduction in financial warranty is requested as part of the acreage reduction.

Written comments or objections to this "Notice of Completion" and acreage reduction request may be submitted to and additional information obtained from the Division of Reclamation, Mining and Safety at 1313 Sherman Street, Room 215 Denver, CO 80203, (303) 866-3567. Comments or objections should be submitted within 30 days of publication of this notice.
