Jason –

I just put the adequacy response package for the HGTI Permit Renewal in the mail. I had it basically ready-to-go before the Holidays, but had to wait on our AutoCAD Tech to finish the map revisions, and he was out. As I recall, the decision date for this is 01/05/18, so to allow adequate time for your review and decision, please extend the decision date to 01/19/18 or further if you feel additional time is needed –

Best regards and the best in this New Year,

Jerry
