Dear Mr. Hays,

Empire Colorado mail delivery requires a PO Box. The postal service doesn't deliver to street addresses. My wife put our street address as the return address which is why many of the letters were returned. Our house is still under construction - nearly completed - but we do not yet have a certificate of occupancy. We will obtain a PO Box as soon as that document is available.

We are meeting with one of the land owners on Wednesday August 1st to discuss our concerns and hopefully encourage him to consider a less intrusive/destructive development.

Best regards,

James Robertson
