

We have not mined any gravel since 2012, so as to come into compliance of getting our well permit and getting our substitute water supply plan in order.