Doug,

The due date for RN-07 for Terror Creek is Friday, but there are a couple of things we are missing.

The first is the affidavit of publication of the Division's decision to approve PR-1, without which PR-1 can't be issued. I just talked to someone at the paper and the person who recently took over legal notices (Oscar) has apparently left. The person who's doing it now (Diane or DeeAnn) is out sick all week. The person I spoke to (Kerry) said she would try to chase up the notarized affidavit, but she's unfamiliar with the legal notices processes.

The second goes back to the original adequacy review letter (attached). The focus of Oxbow's response at the time was understandably all about item 3, the updated cost estimate. That has been addressed, but items 1 and 2 have not. Would you please send a letter in reply to the adequacy letter addressing items 1 and 2?

I think it will be necessary to extend the due date again, I'd suggest to the end of the month.
