Mr. Norwood,

I received a call from Amy Eschberger from the State Division of Reclamation, Mining and Safety concerning a Notice of Intent you submitted on May 26.

She was asking if the Forest Service had received a copy of your submission.

I had not received a copy of your NOI, so she emailed a copy to me.

From your submitted NOI, I noticed you mailed it to our office in Fort Collins. We have now found the copy of the NOI mailed to Fort Collins.

For Mining Claims in Boulder County, please submit information to our Boulder Office at:

Boulder Ranger District

Attn: Mike Johnson

2140 Yarmouth

Boulder, CO 80301

The Forest Service manages the land your mining claim occupies. From the NOI you submitted to the State, I am unable to determine if a Plan of Operations must be submitted to the Forest Service for approval.

Some of the information I'll need include:

- Have you filed a mining claim with the Bureau of Land Management?
- If so, what is the file number assigned (usually begins with CMC)
- A description of your mining operation.
- How do you plan to access your mining claim? There are no roads open for motorized travel in the vicinity of your mining claim.

From your responses, I may have additional questions.

Thanks, Mike
