

APPENDIX K

ARCHAEOLOGICAL, CULTURAL AND HISTORIC RESOURCES

CONTENTS:

- I. Colorado Historical Society Correspondence.
- II. Bureau of Land Management Correspondence.
- III. Archaeological Reconnaissance of the Utah International Craig Underground Project.
- IV. Archaeological Survey of Trapper Mine by the Laboratory of Public Archaeology.
- V. David A. Breternitz Archaeological Survey.
- VI. Matthew S. Freedman, Archaeological Reconnaissance of A Proposed Coal Development in Moffat County, Colorado.
- VII. Archaeological Reconnaissance of Proposed Coal Lease Areas in Moffat, Rio Blanco, and Routt Counties, Colorado.
- VIII. The Results of a Class III Cultural Resource Survey of the Trapper Mine Near Craig, Colorado.
- IX. Archeological Services Correspondence and Survey Report for Site 5MF1399
- X. Mariah Associates, Inc. Report and Other Correspondence Concerning Site 5MF1960.
- XI. Nickens and Associates Report and Other Correspondence Concerning Site 5MF2253.
- XII. Nickens and Associates Report and State Historic Preservation Officer Review of Sites 5MF950 and 5MF2427.

Appendix K; Page 2. TOC

- XIII. Class III Cultural Resource Inventory by Grand River Institute
BLM LSFO No. 11.7.2013 (860 acres)
- XIV. Class III Cultural Resource Inventory by Grand River Institute
BLM LSFO No. 11.10.2013 (752 acres)
- XV. Class III Cultural Resource Inventory by Grand River Institute
BLM LSFO No. 11.1.2014 (1752 acres)
- XVI. Test Excavation of Site 5MF7762 by Grand River Institute
BLM LSFO No. 11.2.2016
- XVII. Test Excavation of Six Sites (5MF319, 5MF7691, 5MF7692, 5MF7727, 5MF7794
and 5MF7795, by Grand River Institute, BLM LSFO No. 11.1.2016
- XVIII. TRAPPER MINING, INC.: INTENSIVE CULTURAL RESOURCES INVENTORY FOR PROPOSED PR-10 2020-2021 DISTURBANCE AREAS WITHIN THE COLORADO STATE COAL
LEASE BOUNDARY, MOFFAT COUNTY, COLORADO, by Metcalf Archaeological Consultants, Inc., Metcalf Project No. 2020.CO.091