RE: Hopemore Shaft operations and permitting

Dear Mr. Calder:

In response to your November 27, 2012 letter, Public Service Company of Colorado ("PSCo") has reviewed the Shaft general facilities arrangement and the proposed disturbance anticipated from future operations. The mining and reclamation activities, as proposed should have no negative impact on our facilities within the 200 feet of the constructed impoundment.

By this review PSCo does not intend to release the Shaft facility nor waive any claims PSCo may have should the Shaft's activities and operations in fact damage PSCo's facilities, and PSCo specifically reserves all rights accordingly.

Sincerely,

Forrest M. Jenkins
Director, Contracting and Utility Services
