Note: On Tuesday, October 19, 2021, Governor Jared Polis appointed Dawn DiPrince as the new Colorado State Historic Preservation Officer. The State Historic Preservation Officer has the delegated authority to represent the State of Colorado in carrying out the responsibilities specified in the National Historic Preservation Act, and in the regulations and administrative requirements established for implementation of the NHPA. Please join us in welcoming Ms. DiPrince to this new capacity.

The Office of Archaeology and Historic Preservation is teleworking indefinitely, and accepting electronic submissions for all office functions. For information regarding digital submissions please contact the appropriate personnel or refer to our website for procedures and information about MoveIT, our secure data submission application.
