Re: Surety Accounting SA5 update to Technical Revision 115 –Proposing Growth Medium Stockpile Relocation

Dear Mr. Russell:

Newmont – Cripple Creek and Victor Gold Mining Company (CC&V) hereby provides the Division of Reclamation, Mining and Safety (DRMS) Surety Accounting SA5, Update to Technical Revision (TR) 115; Proposing to relocate growth medium stockpiles.

This work is required to facilitate the construction activities for the VLF2, Phase 3 project and the ECOSA waste dump project, while maintaining final reclamation material inventories.

Approximately 623,664 cubic yards of growth medium will be relocated from ECOSA and the Ames Warehouse Area stockpiles.

The ECOSA growth medium stockpile (GM11) will be relocated to two new stockpile locations (hot tire pad and STK34) and one existing stockpile (GM06). See attached map.

The Ames Warehouse Area growth medium stockpile (GM39) will be relocated to a new stockpile location (Joe Dandy Road) and to the existing stockpile (GM27). See attached map.

Relocation activities will begin immediately, pending approval from the Teller County Planning Department

The surplus financial warranty will stay the same at $770,639.26. There was a slight decrease in liability due to a shorter haul distance from the stockpiles to the reclamation areas, but it isn't necessary to address at this time.

Hi Elliott,

Please see the letter and attachments regarding TR115-Surety Accounting SA5 update. I was able to compress the one figure that was preventing submittal to your office, so this email includes all of the documents needed for the submittal.

Let me know if you have any questions,

Thanks,

Newmont

Hi Johnna,

Thank you for checking in on this as it was not on my radar. Although the forwarded 1/10/2023 email says it was sent to me and Michael Cunningham was also copied on it, neither of us have it in our All Mail, Deleted, nor Spam folders. Very strange and I am not sure what happened. Can you please email the SA5 submittal again as the forwarded email you sent yesterday did not contain the attachment.

Thank you and sorry for the inconvenience.
