Good morning -

DRMS will have another adequacy letter for you, and I will likely send it out today. It should not be too difficult or time consuming to address these last items, however, I do ask that you request an extension to March 20, 2023. That date will work well with the schedule to have the board hearing on April 19th.

Thanks,
Rob

Correction: Please make the new decision date March 31, 2023. That will help with compliance of rules regarding the board hearing.

Thanks again.
