Good morning,

This is a reminder that the due date for your adequacy response for the Technical Revision (TR3) for the JH Sand & Gravel Pit #1 is due today, Friday June 30, 2023. The decision date is July 5th, 2023, and your adequacy response is due at least three days before the decision to allow the Division time to review your response.

If you need additional time, please request an extension to the due date by the 5:00 PM today.

Thank you,

Amber Michels

Please extend the due date for the adequacy response so I can have time to answer questions. I will try to get to it the first of next week.

Jim

Hi Jim,

To clarify, how long are you requesting an extension for? Are you requesting until next week? Or a 30 day extension?

Thank you,
