Rob –

Just checking in and thought I should probably get a decision date extension request over to you since it is December 13th for the decision date and I don't think we will have time for you to review all of our responses especially with the objectors since we are meeting them later this week. What do you think would be appropriate to request the extension date to?

Regards,

J.C.

Hi, JC.

How about the end of January? I will have to get my groundwater guy and geotech guy to look at it again.

Thanks,
Rob

Thank you, JC. This letter is perfect - no need for anything else. I will update the decision date to 1/31/2024.
