

No material was collected in 2023

The reservoir water came up and reclaimed the previously-impacted quarry area.

The access route from the bottom of the boat ramp to the quarry area has partially re-grown with willows, but is still impacted.

We anticipate resumption of quarrying activities in fall 2024.

Boundary signs are not posted because the boundaries are below the high-water line.