

The Geographic Information System (GIS) and its components are designed as a source of reference for answering inquiries, for planning and for modeling. GIS in on inherided or does not replace legal description information in the chain offsite and for planning and the modeling of the courts. In addition, the representation or of location in this GIS cannot be substitute to actual legal surveys.

The information contained hemin is believed accurate and suitable for the limited uses, and subject to the limitations, set forth above. Mess County makes no warranty as to the accuracy or suitability of any information contained referre. Users assume

DRMS Annual Report 2024
Print Date: February 10, 2020

