Hi Clayton,

After reviewing the documentation provided for the subject undertaking, we understand that the proposed technical revision involves the addition of as-built drawings to a permit. Since the revision only includes the addition of drawings to a permit for a pond that has already been constructed, it appears that this revision does not involve activities requiring review under Section 106 of the NHPA. If additional activities are proposed, we request further consultation with our office.

Regards,

Matthew Marques*Section 106 Compliance Manager
