Hello, All -

Please see the attached adequacy letter and note that the current decision date is next Friday (aka, Valentines Day).

There may be some good news: if my math related to Issue #9 is correct, we may be able to reduce the cost for at least one task (backfilling). However, Issue #8 may counter this reduction. We shall see as we work out the details.

Thanks,
Rob

Hello, All -

Here is my new adequacy letter. Mostly minor items, but I do recommend a large change to C-2, the mining plan map.

Hello.

I am working through the cost estimate for this TR, and I still have some questions. I'll contact Ben with details, but can you request another extension for two weeks to March 14, 2025?
