

GIR plows Caribou Road up to their mine and maintains road that way year-round...
GIR had already plowed this once that morning and had come by again while we were packing out!

And had pulled several cars out down below this that had ventured in too far for their clearance and driving abilities...

THANKS GIR!