

Exhibit F

Soil will be stockpiled as it is removed and stockpiled on site and within the boundaries. It will be stored there until reclamation process begins. The soil will then be spread over slopes no steeper than a 3:1 horizontal to vertical slope. This process will involve use of a dozer, front end loader and trucks.