Hi Hunter,

Thank you for sending DRMS's Deficiency Notice No. 2, dated July 23, 2025. Below is a brief note memorializing our conversation in connection with the Notice.

Nancy is a corporate officer of Shift Exploration Inc. and is authorized to execute the affidavit on its behalf. Attached is the filing with the California Secretary of State that we discussed, along with a revised page 1 of the NOI reflecting Shift Exploration as the prospector. Hard copies of the financial warranty forms were also sent to DRMS's Denver office and are expected to arrive by close of business on Thursday, July 24, 2025.

Regarding the maps bearing the name of the applicant, we understand that this requirement typically applies to exhibits to mining plans under Rule 6.2.1(2)(a), rather than to maps submitted with prospecting applications under Rule 5.1.2(d)(v)(A). However, should your technical review of the NOI identify any deficiencies requiring map revisions, we will take that opportunity to update the maps to include Shift Exploration Inc.

Please confirm that Shift Exploration has addressed the issues raised in Deficiency Notice No. 2 and that DRMS has commenced its technical review of the NOI.

Thank you,

Dan

Thank you, Hunter,

Daniel is in the progress of responding.

I would just like to clarify further that our company is Homeland Uranium Corporation, not Homeland Uranium Inc. This was an error in the first set of forms submitted. Homeland uranium Corporation is in no way, shape or form affiliated or related to Homeland Uranium Inc. We are a complete separate and unrelated entity.

For your files, Shift Exploration is a subsidiary of Homeland Uranium Corporation.
